SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 19.

For the Public.—From the lat day of July, 1861, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington city, D. C., will be, per quarter in advance, as follows:—Fifty miles or under, 25 cents; over fifty and not over three hundred, 56 cents; over three hundred and not exceeding one thousand, 75 cents, &c. Any person wishing to be served for three months after the above date need only pay his quarter's postage, and send us a gold dollar and a silver quarter in a small letter—postage paid, of course; or five dollars for a year. The Telegraph is independent in politics, polite, moral, agreeable, and familiar, prompt in furnishing the news, and a terror to all evil doers.

cers. Editors of weekly and other papers desirous to ex-tange with us can pay the difference in the prices of abscription by giving a few insertions to the above noe. [Wassinsoros, May 27, 1851.

CENSUS OF NATIONS .- The Intelligencer of this morning says that "Mr. Kennedy's visit to Europe will, our London correspondent thinks. be productive of great good. He will both receive and communicate knowledge; and, if the census returns of the United States, Great Britain, France, Prussia, Holland, Belgium, and Austria, could henceforward be made upon the same principles, and at the same periods, and the materials, so far as possible, arranged upon the same plan, a greater step in the advancement of sound practical political economy would be made than has been accomplished since the days of Adam Smith."

MR. CORWIN .- The Maysville Post Boy of the 15th says: We regret learning that Hon. Thos. Corwin, Secretary of the Treasury, will be unable to attend the barbecue on account of sick-

MAJOR GENERAL JESSUP. - The Louisville Courier of the 15th says: This distinguished officer is at present on a visit to our city, and is W. Thruston, esq.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT .- The following telegraphic despatch appears in the Baltimore Sun of this morning:

" New York, July 18, p. m .- Secretary Corwin has been telegraphed to be in Washington on Sunday. The State Department has been reorganized, and Mr. Chew placed at the head of the Consular Bureau. Mr. Webster went to Boston this evening."

The above respecting the State Department is an error. There has been no reorganization; for this an act of Congress would be necessary. The misapprehension has probably arisen from the fact that under a late law three of the older clerks have been given increased salaries, their duties continuing as heretofore. Mr. Markoe receives $2,000, instead of $1,600 as hitherto: Mr. Chew $2,000, instead of $1,400; and Mr. Hamilton Derrick $1,600, instead of $1,500. Length of service, without regard to political bias, appears to have determined the Secretary in designating the persons to receive these increased

A LARGE DIAMOND .- The Cumberland Civilian, (which ought not to change its familiar and time-honored name,) of yesterday's date, says: "There is now lying before the door of our office a single lump of as pure coal as can be found in this region, weighing three thousand one hundred and forty pounds! It is from the Eckhart mine of the Maryland Mining Company, and, so far as we can learn, is the largest lump that was ever mined in this region. One of the miners employed at the Eckhart mines happened to visit our office yesterday, and informed us that at least six hundred pounds were lost from this lump before it could be made of the proper size to pass through the galleries of the mines. We are sorry that this splendid and rare specimen of the mineral wealth of the Cumberland coal region could not be exhibited at the Great Exhibition in Lonformed, more than half-naked women, dead alike to shame and hope, who toil from year to year for the means of protracting a wretched existence. England can excel us in her curiosities of many kinds.

DEPARTURE OF THE OLD 'UN .- Since the announcement, yesterday, of the intended departure for a day and a half of the senior editor of this paper to the "rural districts" beyond the Eastern Branch, proffers have been made by the proprietors of various omnibuses, and stage and proprietors of various omnibuses, and stage and lands of William Brewer, near Fairfax Court- when on a sudden a loud explosion, resembling steamboat lines, to convey him to his destina- House, beginning on Monday, the 11th of that of a rocket, startled the neighborhood, followed by the startled the neighborhood of the startled the neighborhood. tion; and in one instance a furniture car has been placed subject to his order, to convey all his traps and plunder. We are profoundly grateful for all these manifestations of popular favor, as well as for the kind, warm-hearted politeness with which these offers are accompanied; but as a brown paper parcel is the extent of our luggage, and our sturdy crook-cane is still as reliable as ever, we shall make choice of our accustomed quiet, modest, dignified and safe mode of locomotion. Our correspondence with the Telegraph from the most prominent and interesting points of our journey will doubtless prove of rare interest to the public; and an inreased issue will be necessary. We have therefore given instructions to our printers to add another quire to the two quires of paper to which our daily issue has already grown. Thus, it will be perceived, we are not unmindful of the wants of the public, nor of the duty incumbent upon us. But let it be understood that the inward consciousness of doing good, and not pecuniary reward nor the voice of popular praise, is the incentive that prompts all in our silent musings we fancy we would be doing.

THE TEN HOURS' SYSTEM .- The operatives. male and female, young and old, at Paterson, New Jersey, are out on a strike for the ten hours' system, which the employers will only acquiesce in by reducing the wages. Ten hours is enough in all conscience for any human being to labor, and the laws of every State should establish this as a maximum measure of a day's work in the absence of special contracts.

The Hon. ROBERT TOOMBS, of Georgia, who is one of the alumni of the University of Virginia. that they parted company in the night. has been elected to deliver the anniversary oration in 1852.

REPRESENTED IN RUSSIA.—Late intelligence from

JOHN M. BOTTS .- This indomitable politician turns up every now and then. Being invited to attend a "free discussion" dinner to be given to two of the Virginia "Democratic" candidates for Congress, at Farmville, Messrs. Bowcock and Flournoy, both of the "South Carolina" school, or being very much that way, he wrote a letter in reply, in which, it is said, he a degree, that its reading was stopped, and no "free" discussion allowed. The "Chivalry" were thrown into spasms.

GENERAL WOOL .- The Troy (N. Y.) Daily Times says of Gen. W. that he "has many and strong friends throughout the east and west, who are moving silently but most efficiently to secure his nomination; and it would not be even a seven days' wonder to us, if Troy soon had the honor of furnishing a Chief Magistrate to the nation."

CENTRE-MARKET THIS MORNING .- Eggs, 14c.; egg plants, 12½c. each; cantelopes, 25c. each; young ladies, sweet and tempting; plums, 121c. per qt.; Lima beans, 25c. peck; peaches 121c. doz.; chickens, $2@$3 do.; hucksters saucy; supplies generally abundant; old ladies close dealers; Hall's and Richardson's ice creams refreshing; Oyster's butter elegant, and weather sultry.

ACCIDENT.-Three boiled eggs were this morning set before a gentleman upon which to breakfast. He broke one into his tumbler-it was bright and quivering; the second the same, and in went the third, which was bad! He sent the tumbler away, breakfasted on a buttered roll, and left the table in dudgeon.

Moral: Use an egg cup.

BLOOMER WEDDING .- The Boston Common vealth of last Tuesday says: "One of the editorial fraternity of this city took the hand of a stopping at the residence of his friend, Charles fair lady in marriage, last evening, whose costume was an elegant white satin Bloomer. It was neatly made, fitting snug around the waist and close up in the neck, the spencer opening in front like a naval officer's vest, and interaced a la Swiss Mountaineer-sleeves flowing, white kids, white satin slippers, hair done plain, with a wreath of orange flowers over the brow, and a long bridal veil flowing from the crown of the head over the shoulders."

CUBA .- The New York Sun of yesterday morning has a column of Cuban news, from which we cannot learn as much as the editors of that paper appear to derive from it. The heading is well displayed, and in the following words:

"Highly important news from Cuba! Opening of the Cuban revolution! Formation of guerilla parties in the mountains of Coscorro. Spanish troops in pursuit of the patriots! Commencement of hostilities expected. Great excitement among the people of Principe! Pronunciamento expected to be made on the 4th of July !"

The Sun concludes as follows -"The Spanish war steamer Pizarro arrived a this port vesterday afternoon from Hayana, and is at anchor off the Battery. What may be the object of a second visit of this steamer to our port, within so short a time, can only be conectured. It is not improbable that she is on the look-out for 'filibusters,' or to gather reports from the Spanish spies in this city."

"BALL" LOGIC: THE CODE OF HONOR .- We quote with great pleasure the following remarks from the Philadelphia Bulletin:

"The murder of Mr. Frost, editor of the New Orleans 'Crescent City,' is another illustration of the absurdity of 'ball' logic. Two men, mutually exasperated against each other, and unable to adjust their controversy by calm argument, resort to the duello; and the result is that one is shot. Hotspurs may applaud this as a gentlemanly way of settling the difficulty; but, to our notions, the salve of murder is but a poor cure for insult. People of common sense, and with practical views of life, will be very apt don." They might show something more won-to ask whether Col. Hunt is any the less out-raged, now that he has killed Mr. Frost; if he is not, on the contrary, a much less happy man. For, disguise it as you will, Colonel Hunt has taken a fellow-creature's life, not by accident, but with design; and if that does not, in the eyes of God, constitute murder, we do not know what does. And yet how strangely men think and act in respect to duelling! We should think that the wickedness and folly of this re-sort to the logic of the ball would be acknowl-edged by all."

A District Camp-meeting is to be held on the lands of William Brewer, near Fairfax Court-August, and ending on Saturday, the 16th of lowed by a blaze of light, equal in intensity to the same month.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN LOWER CANADA. In the lower province of Canada there are one archbishop, six bishops, and five hundred and fifty clergymen. The church owns two millions one hundred and seventeen thousand, one hundred and seventy-nine acres of land.

DANGEROUS VISITER .- The Maysville Post Boy is requested to state that the man who shot the ramrod at the squirrel is in town.

Tunner, the inimitable ballad singer, was to give a musical soirce last evening at the Musical Fund Hall, Philadelphia.

> PICKED UP AT SEA .- Captain Rowland, of the yesterday morning from New Orleans, reports July 5, lat. 25° 30', long. 84°, picked up a boat containing six men, who report that they abandoned the British bark Mary Ann, of Sunderland, in a sinking condition, two days previous. She was from New Orleans for Liverpool, ladened with corn. They also state that the captain, officers, with the balance of the crew, left at the same time in the long-boat, and

SALE OF NEWSPAPERS .- The greatest sale which any journal ever attained is probably that of the number of the Rhustrated London Russia states that the Russian army had met with a serious defeat in Circassia; in a battle where it had 25,000 men engaged it lost 5,000.

BOLD THIEF .- A stranger, calling to see Dr. May yesterday, tarried awhile under pretence of the Doctor's having made an appointment to meet him, and, as soon as an opportunity occurred, went to the dining-room, gathered up one hundred dollars worth of silver ware, and took his leave, telling the servant at the door he had left a note, which he had, with the name rasped the Secessionists and Disunionists to such of Joseph Wilson appended to it. As soon as the silver was missed, the officers were out in pursuit; and Keese, Mulloy and Buscher, startng in the afternoon train of cars, soon identified the rogue among all the passengers, notwithstanding his total change of costume, and found in his luggage all the silver. He was brought back to the city last night and sent to limbo by Justice Thompson. The fellow is about twenty-five years old, hails from Baltimore, and his true name is probably Moses Lawrence.

WOODBURY'S ACADEMY.—The examination of this excellent institution took place yesterday, at the Academy, in the presence of a large number of patrons and visiters.

The exercises, embracing all the departments of literature and science usually taught in academies, afforded abundant proof of the ability and faithfulness of the Principal and application of the students. At the principal wiful premium was given to each student, the values of which varied with their respective merits.

Messrs. Joseph S. Wilson and J. Ormond Wilson then made short and appropriate addresses to the students and visiters.

CRIMINAL COURT .- There has been little done to-day, except the sentence of John Burch to a fine of $10 and costs for striking a negro woman, the servant of Mr. Benjamin Evans. Costs mean $30, and are always worth counting.

The trial of Day for the murder of his wife is set for Monday; that of Samuel Stettinius, for perjury and false pretences in obtaining land warrants, is set for Saturday next, until which time the witnesses have been discharged.

I wish, then, to state that I have never written any thing for your paper without giving you my full name. This statement is particularly necessary, from the fact that one of your correspondents states

Primary No. 3, second district; Miss E. A.

[Communicated.] Another Camphine Explosion - Mrs. Durham nearly burned to death-Necessity of penal laws to prevent its sale and use. FRIDAY EVENING, 9 o'clock. I am so much exasperated, Messrs. Editors at the supreme folly of men and women in burning camphine, ethereal oil, fluids, and the whole ewly-invented explosive is a bit more worthy than he was before; if he of good, old-fashioned and safe oil and candles that I sit down, with a burnt and injured right hand, to protest against the further use of these life-destroyers, and to beg the city authorities to pass a severe law at once, forbidding their sale and use in our city; and at the same time to tell you how my hostility against them has been excited anew.

I was sitting, half an hour ago, on the pave ment in front of my lodgings near Mrs. Dur-ham's boarding-house, in what is familiarly called Duff Green's row, Capitol Hill, trying to get a breath of what slight breeze was going, a display of red fireworks, in the second story of Mrs. D.'s dwelling. In an instant I was at the head of the stairway, brushing aside with some difficulty the flying groups of men, women, and children, rushing down the staircase. Guess my horror at seeing Mrs. Durham calmly standing on the landing in the back building, with her clothes all in flame, and burning to death without a murmur!

I tore up the oil-cloth first, greatly to the injury of my hands, and then the hall carpet, The flame was instantly extinguished, and the next moment I seized her smouldering garments, and, by one violent effort, laid them on the floor on either side of her. By this time blankets were at hand, and the sufferer was soon in the hands of the physician. I learn she is badly burned, especially her hands, arms, neck and

And this is the record of the thousandth, yes the ten-thousandth record of such events, and yet people will madly persist in the use of the dangerous fluid, which has caused so much loss of life and so much suffering. There is no other way, Messrs. Editors, to put an end to this destructive substitute for oil and candle light, but for the strong arm of municipal law to intervene, to punish the users and sellers of it by heavy fine and imprisonment. ***

PATENTS.—The report of the Patent office for Caledonia Brander," arrived at New York 1851 is not yet published, but the following information of interest to inventors has been furnished to the Scientific American: The cash receipts for the year for patents were $86,927. There were 2,193 applications for patents—patents granted, 602. Applications in 1848, 1,628; 1849, 1,955; 1850, 2,193. Cases granted in 1848, 607; 1849, 595; 1850, 602. Patents ssued in 1848, 660; 1849, 1,076; 1850, 995 Cash received in 1848, $67,576 69; 1849 $80,752 78; 1850, $86,927 05. Cash expended in 1848, $58,905 84; 1849, $77,716 44; 1850, $80,000 95. There were 238 more applications last year than year before. The number increases rapidly every year.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—A very interesting discovery has recently been made in Egypt. M. Mariette, a young French scholar, who was despatched on a scientific mission to Egypt, has liscovered the exact site of the ancient city of Memphis, which has heretofore been a matter of doubt. After careful search he has found a great quantity of Grecian and Egyptian remains, buried under a deposit of sand, varying from six to forty feet in depth. Among other objects he recognised the Scrapeum, a monu-ment described by Strabo. The avenue leading to it was filled with a large number of statues and sphinxes, some of which contained inscriptions. The drawings of these remains, sent by M. Mariette to Paris, attracted much attention, and it is understood that funds will be furnished him for the further prosecution of his re-

WONDERFUL GROWTH OF SAN FRANCISCO Hunt's Merchants' Magazine, for May, states the almost incredible fact, that the exports from San Francisco are larger than from any other city in the United States, not excepting even New York, and that in imports and tonnage it stands amongst the first.

EDUCATION IN VIRGINIA .- According to an address recently delivered by the editor of the Southern Literary Messenger, at Lexington, Va., it appears that there are in one hundred and counties in the State-the whole number being one hundred and twenty-one-"thirty thousand poor children, over five years of age, without any means of instruction"-that is, about one-seventh of the white children of schoolable age. This number comprises only those who have no means of education; and there are now in the State some seventy thousand white adults who can neither read nor write. Supposing one-half of these to be males. there must be one-third of the voters of Virginia who are most deplorably ignorant.

A late writer wishes to know what more precious can be laid upon the altar of a man's heart than the first love of a pure, earnest and affectionate girl, with an undivided interest in eight corner lots, and fourteen three-story houses. We know of nothing half so touching, or, in other words, nothing that most people would sooner touch.—Ex.

A son of Erin gave the following toast: "Here's wishing you may never die, nor no-body kill ye, until ye knock yer brains out against the silver knocker of yer own dhoor."

MURDEROUS SPORT.—Some men and boys in Columbus, Burlington county, New Jersey, on Thursday last, placed a negro man, named Noah Cæsar, on a rough rail, and carried him upon it until he was exhausted from the severe usage, and fell helpless to the ground. This was do for fun, but he died in the afternoon.

VICTORIA AND ALBERT. - A correspondent thus describes them in a Paris journal:

"This is evidently the place for me to draw a couple of portraits. The Queen is small; I did not see in her face any thing of that type stamped in profile on the national coin, or that repre-sented in the portraits which circulate throughout Europe. The hair of her majesty is of soft chestnut; her nose has an imperious curve; her mouth is Austrian, and has a prominent movement of the lower lip, which, in expressing certain impressions, gives the mouth a queer outline

"The toilette of Oueen Victoria would have driven a Parisian lady to despair. Her majesty wore a skirt of transparent muslin, with volants, over an underskirt of blue sink, a pink man-tilla, a blue hat and straw gloves, badly fitting. Prince Albert, a very handsome fellow, looking much like the usual portraits (Princes are always flattered) in circulation, was dressed with more negligence, in a brown frock coat, gray pantaloons, and silk cravat. But why that great blue ribbon of the Order of the Garter so rly in the morning and

Dr. Sockbridge of the Foundain Hotel, Light street, Baltimors.

Dr. Six: Being on the point of leaving the city, I avail myself of a few idle moments to thank you kindly for the medicine you sent me, and which has restored me to the use of my limbs. I beg you to send me four bottles more, to carry on my voyage. Since I had the fortune to use Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture my confidence is so strong that, in gratitude to the proprietors of said medicine, I beg you to present my respects to them, and induce them to make it more publicly known as a sure Rheumatic cure. Having called on me on the 19th of April last, and seen me prostrated on my bed, useless in all my limbs, you can appreciate nearly as well as my-self the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hampton's Tincture, and I am positive had it not been for your strong and forcible recommendations I should still have been in bed.

It is really a pity this specific should not be approved.

It is really a pity this specific should not be approved by medical men, and like all patent drugs it should suffer the imputation the public generally give to such prepara-tions. I myself, who was always opposed to a patented specific, took this medicine with refuctance, and without ace in it, and it was only through your disinterest ed, friendly recommendations, and my critical situation, that induced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable Tineture.

You may inform Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray that they are at liberty to make use of my name in the support of the good effects of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tineture, as it has cured me, in five weeks, of a chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracted under tropical climates, and of seven years' periodical duration. I have only used three bottles, and find that even the deformed parts of my hands are fast returning to their former natural appearance.

of my hands are fast returning to their former natura appearance.

I have been under the treatment of several physician in London and Paris, without any apparent benefit; also while in New York, having tried the Thompsonian and Homeopathic remedies, after having been tormented with galvanic batteries, cold and aromatic baths, and hundred of internal and external medicines, all to no effect. I am, so far, cured by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture only. Therefore, my dear sir, accept of the assurance of my gratitude, and believe me your well-wisher.

WONDERFUL CURE OF HEREDITARY SCROFULA

WONDERFUL CURE OF HEREDITARY SCROFULA!
This certificate is from the pen of a gentleman whose name appears on the journal of Congress—one who is extensively and favorably known:
It affords me pleasure to state that Dr. Jesse Hampton's Tincture has effected a most extraordinary cure of my slave boy Albert. The patient was three years old, and had the Scrofula—(his father is scrofulous.) The boy was a moving mass of sores from head to foot; the upper lids of the eyes were much swollen, and turned inside out, exhibiting horrible mattering ulcers, that protruded over the eye-ball so as to produce blindness. It is strange, yet true, this child—that I felt resigned to see die as a relief from suffering—has been restored to health under the treatment of Dr. Hampton.

LOUISVILLE, March 20, 1851.

We have a large number of certificates from our most respectable citizens attesting cures made by this celebrated Tincture of most every disease that "flesh is heir to." After all other remedies have failed, we ask the afflicted to call on the Agents and get pamphlets with certificates of cures.
